

SECRETARY-GENERAL OF ISLAMIC MILITARY COUNTER TERRORISM COALITION MEETS THE CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES OF REPUBLIC OF CÔTE D'IVOIRE

3 October 2019, Riyadh - His Excellency Mr. Ouattara Lamine, the Chargé d'Affaires of Republic of Côte d'Ivoire to KSA was warmly greeted at the IMCTC Headquarters in Riyadh by the Secretary-General of the Islamic Military Counter Terrorism Coalition (IMCTC), Major General Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi. During the visit, both parties deliberated on means of cooperation, joint perspectives and enhancing relations to achieve desired goals in the war against terrorism.

Several security issues related to regional and international developments in the fight against terrorism, and which are of common concern between both parties, were explored.

Major General Al-Moghedi commended the importance of the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire's efforts as a Member Country in IMCTC.

H.E. Mr. Lamine, on his part, affirmed his country's ongoing support to the IMCTC work and its readiness to make all necessary efforts and to promote their collaboration in the fight against terrorism.

Of great note, IMCTC is a Pan-Islamic coalition of 41 countries that have come together to coordinate and multiply their individual efforts in the global war against terrorism and violent extremism and to effectively join other international security and peacekeeping efforts.
