

IMCTC signs a joint cooperation memorandum with King Salman Center for Relief and Humanitarian Aid (KSCRHA)

Dec.4, 2019 – Riyadh: The advisor to the Royal Court, Supervisor General of King Salman Center for Relief and Humanitarian Aid, Dr. Abdullah Mohammed Al-Rabeeah, met with Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi, Secretary-General of the Islamic Military Counter-Terrorism Coalition (IMCTC), and an accompanying delegation on Wed. Dec. 4, 2019 at KSCRHA headquarters in Riyadh. Both sides explored areas of joint cooperation and further developing relations between the two organizations. A memorandum of joint cooperation was signed between IMCTC and KSCRHA that covers a range of initiatives and joint training programs as well as sharing reports and studies of common interest.

Maj. Gen. Al-Moghedi pointed out that the signing of the memorandum aims at enhancing integration and strategic partnership between IMCTC and KSCRHA to achieve more cooperation and integration between both organizations in the various areas related to their respective fields of work.

IMCTC Secretary-General further stated that the visit comes in the context of fostering joint cooperation and exchange programs between IMCTC and domestic, Islamic and international organizations.