

Al-Masmak Fortress receives a delegation from IMCTC

Riyadh, 30 - 09 - 2021

A delegation from the Islamic Military Counter-terrorism Coalition, led by IMCTC Secretary General, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi, and IMCTC Member Countries' Delegates visited Al-Masmak Fortress in Riyadh, as part of acquainting the Delegates with historical and cultural heritage of Saudi Arabia.

The Delegates expressed their pleasure at seeing the Saudi heritage, architectural art as well as their appreciation of the progress it has made and prosperity it has achieved across political, military, economic, cultural and tourism arenas. Further, the delegation commended Saudi Arabia's leading role in countering terrorism, extremism and its unlimited support for international counter-terrorism organizations.
