The Islamic Military Counter-terrorism Coalition plans to participate in Riyadh International Book Fair, which is set to take place on October 01, 2021. IMCTC's participation at this event comes as part of its engagement with the various segments of society to acquaint them with its mission and efforts in countering terrorism and violent extremism. It further seeks to familiarize the public with its scholarly and intellectual publications, including "Al-Tahluf Magazine, Allied Newsletter, Book Review, and International Reports" all of which aim to expose the truth behind extremist terrorist groups on a scholarly basis, in the domains of ideology and communications.

IMCTC publications focus on addressing counter-terrorism issues across the various areas covering (ideology, communications, counter terrorist financing and military) where a group of intellectuals tackles these topics across such areas.

For his part, IMCTC Secretary General, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi pointed out that this participation is the first of its kind for IMCTC to take part in local and international book fairs and cultural events. He further stressed that such participations and engagements are important because they help in disseminating knowledge and educating the public about the perils of terrorism and curbing violent extremism.
