

IMCTC receives Turkmenistan's Minister of Defense

The Secretary-General of the Islamic Military Counter-Terrorism Coalition, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi received at IMCTC headquarters HE, the Secretary of the State Security Council, Minister of Defense of the Republic of Turkmenistan, Begenç, and the accompanying delegation.

The visiting Defense Minister received a briefing on IMCTC's mission, vision and strategic initiatives. The briefing also covered IMCTC's role in coordinating and consolidating member countries efforts in helping the Muslim world as well as the international community in eradicating the scourge of terrorism. Further, HE was brought up to speed on IMCTC's latest reports and statistics regarding terrorist organizations around the world.

Meanwhile, Minister Gündogdyýew commended IMCTC's counter-terrorism approach and strategic initiatives geared to be implemented in collaboration with member countries and other relevant international organizations.

For his part, Maj. Gen. Al-Moghedi pointed out that IMCTC looks forward to seeing Turkmenistan to join the Coalition soon to work side by side with the rest of its member states to advance IMCTC's counterterrorism mission through collective efforts, information and expertise sharing across counterterrorism domains.