

Proxy Warfare – (Fourth-Generation Wars) a title of an event held by IMCTC

Riyadh, 12- 08 – 2021

The Islamic Military Counterterrorism Coalition (IMCTC) held on Thursday, Aug.12, 2021, at its headquarters in Riyadh, a presentation titled: (Proxy Warfare – Fourth-Generation Wars) delivered by Brig. Gen. Raaed Marashdah, delegate of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan to IMCTC, in the presence of IMCTC Secretary-General, member countries' delegates and personnel.

Brig. Gen. Marashdah shed light on the concept of proxy warfare, methods, military, political, economic dimensions, key techniques, tools and features used in proxy wars. He further touched upon the various mechanisms and strategies adopted by different countries in pursuing proxy warfare, how to avoid such wars and linked the dimensions of the concept of proxy warfare to IMCTC counterterrorism domains (ideology, communications, CTF and military).

The presentation is part of a series of military domain focused symposia, speeches and panel discussions held regularly by IMCTC.
